

7.1.1 Measures initiated by the Institution for the promotion of gender equity during the year.

Describe gender equity & sensitization in curricular and co-curricular activities, facilities for women on campus etc.

The college is committed to provide a safe and conducive work and academic environment for students, teaching and non-teaching staff. The College has carved a niche for itself by providing a safe and secure place for women students.

Important safety and security features include

1. Identity Cards issued to all the students.
2. Gate keeper at the college entrance
3. Suggestion box/Complaint box are provided for students.
4. CCTV camera surveillance at important common areas
5. Counselling: Students take part in the gender sensitivity programmes to acquire an awareness regarding the gender sensitivity issues in the society. Personal Counseling is provided to the students to address their academic and personal issues.
6. Grievance redressal Committee is also functioning to address the problems of students.
7. NSS, NCC, Rangers and cultural committee also organize cultural programme and awareness activities about gender sensitization which have great impact on the students.
8. Health camps are organized to increase awareness of various health problems such as PCOD, cervical cancer, anemia and other health concerns among female students.
9. Incinerators and sanitary napkins are installed.
10. Yoga and Gymnasium

The Proctorial Board discipline committee with its student body maintains discipline in the college campus and meets on need basis to address any complaints from students and takes necessary action. The student body assists the proctorial board in maintaining discipline on daily basis in the campus. The students and the Teachers in the Proctorial board cordially coordinate together in maintaining a harmonious happy atmosphere in the college.

The Grievance Redressal Cell has been constituted in accordance with the UGC guidelines for student grievance redressal mechanism at the college. It comprises of the Head of the Institution/ The Principal, three members of the staff and one student representative. The Committee attends to the grievances of the students and offers redressal of the same in a time bound and effective manner. The students can contact the cell members personally or leave their written complaint in the complaint box kept in the college campus.

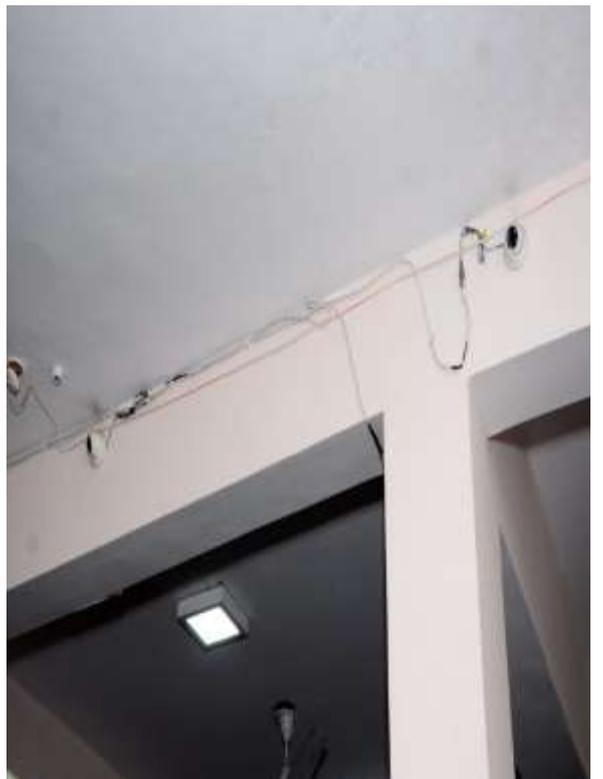

The Cell has been constituted to help in enhancing students' experience at the College and is committed to providing student support in a transparent and student centric mode. Student grievances are attended to promptly, in strictest confidentiality, to ensure an empowering and fulfilling learning environment for all the students of the College. The complaint/suggestion box is available for girls and a notice panel displays the important contact numbers for instant assistance to students.

The Campus is under CCTV surveillance as well as measures to prevent monkeys from entering the building.

In your lecture, you elaborated on the main main points of gender and also highlighted the status of women in today's present situation, women are given equal status but do they actually get that place. Women have to understand that if we see in the present scenario, ironing has also gone shoulder to shoulder in this odd situation, it has been equally tense as men have thrown light on serious subjects etc.
